

International Mastermind: Scaling Your Business Program

by WMasterminds

In an era of rapid change and global business transformation, we invite you to an exclusive international, high-impact Mastermind program—the first of its kind in Warsaw.

Beata Mońska, CEO of Art of Networking, and Geeta Sidhu-Robb, CEO of WCorporation LTD a serial entrepreneur and multi-million-dollar business builder, first met at Davos. During conversations on leadership and innovation, they discovered a shared passion: empowering women in business to scale and succeed globally. Inspired by their aligned vision and decades of experience, they decided to team up to bring forth this transformational initiative.

Beata has nearly 30 years of experience leading businesses across Poland, Europe, the Middle East, and Australia, managing multinational organizations, private enterprises, and fostering powerful business networks. Geeta, with her international perspective, has been building and scaling businesses across the USA, UK, and Kenya since 2007. Born in Malawi and based in London, she brings a dynamic, results-driven approach to business growth.

Together, they combine their global expertise, vast networks, and shared commitment to impact-driven leadership—creating a powerful environment for ambitious women ready to scale their businesses and elevate their success on an international stage.
